

FEB 16, 2020 | 2 PM | Metropolitan Pavilion, 125 W. 18th St., NYC

A PAPER-THIN DISTANCE

How the discovery of our common humanity can shatter racial ideology with Daryl Davis, musician and public speaker, and Christian Piccolini, author and founder of the Free Radical Projects global network, moderated by Jonathan Fields, composer

Open to the public
Free of charge
No registration required

An African American blues musician who engages with members of the Ku Klux Klan. The former leader of a white-supremacist skinhead group who has left hate behind. A surprising dialogue on crossing the divide from opposite sides of a seemingly unbridgeable chasm.

www.newyorkencounter.org

2020
NEW YORK
ENCOUNTER X