A Singing Heart

A night of celebration and songs with the Encounter volunteers

Open to the public
Free of charge

Our hearts have to look out for this clarity that is distant, beyond the farthest stars but is present in our "present." Man sings when he has the experience of a promise of truth and beauty that is happening. What does your heart have to look out for?
It has to look out for this present clarity that is beyond.
