Bridging the Divide in the Most Unlikely of Places

A conversation on reconciliation and going over apparently un-crossable divides with Jeanne Bishop, Cook County Public Defender and Fr. George Williams, chaplain for San Quentin State Prison death row

NEW YORK
ENCOUNTER X

A public defender reconciling with the man who murdered her sister, un-born child, and brother-in-law and a chaplain serving in a seemingly hopeless place of death row will share their experience of going over apparently un-crossable divides.
