

Character: Something to Start From?

Feb 16, 2019
Metropolitan Pavilion
125 W. 18th St.
NYC

Open to the public
Free of charge

NEW YORK
ENCOUNTER
2019

A presentation with Jackie Aldrette, Managing Director of AVSI USA, and Anne Snyder, Director of The Character Initiative at The Philanthropy Roundtable, moderated by Timothy Hermann, Member of the Permanent Observer Mission of the Holy See to the United Nations

What is character? What role can it have in human development? Is it really a common American value? How is it formed? Speakers will discuss these questions and their relevance in our society.

Featured image:
Eugeniusz Kędziński, Girl With a Jug,
1900, oil on canvas | MNW | US-PD

www.newyorkencounter.org