OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

There is no doubt that what started on October 7 has torn open our souls and raised many questions. Many factors have to be taken into account, and multiple points of view have to be considered if we want to address these questions without being left at the mercy of immediate reactions or prejudices. Speakers will help the audience to appreciate the complexities and nuances of this tragic situation and share how it is affecting them.

A Torn Open Wound

A conversation on the war between Israel and Hamas, its worldwide impact, and any conceivable road to peace, with Shadi Hamid, The Washington Post columnist and editorial board member, and Jacob Siegel, senior editor at The Tablet, moderated by Everett Price, foreign policy advisor
